51$tState ! Because 50 States Just Aren't Enough ! 51$tState is a meme coin inspired by the idea of "expanding the union." It's a cryptocurrency with a sense of humor, aimed at building a community that values fun, inclusivity , financial innovation and growth. With blockchain at its core , 51$tState combines entertainment with decentralized finance (DeFi) to create a unique user experience.

The internet has united global communities in ways that national borders never could. 51$tStates is a tribute to the digital era, imagining a virtual "51st state" where everyone belongs . All united in order that everyone may grow all exponentially based on their implication levels! That's also why we need to reassemble the bests out of the bests !

Whether you're here for the meme , the vibes , or the gains , this project is about creating a decentralized , borderless and from all trading platforms or type or style of trade ! Getting fueled by all of that diversity , creativity and sharp mindset !

Our mission is simple: to create the most entertaining and engaging meme coin while promoting decentralization , financial inclusion , and community empowerment . We aim to unite people globally through humor and shared goals . We shall provide a fun yet functional entry point into the crypto or forex space . Reward community participation with REAL VALUE . On release , 90% of all the total liquidity will already be on the market , AND THERE CAN NEVER BE MORE ! What you see is a hundred percent straightforward and honest ! As for the remaining 10 % a part of it will be for community event reward , but most of it will be returned to the most loyal holders , by distributing a dynamic reward to stakers and long term holders . Which basically means that it's a bit like receiving interest returns on investments . But on the top it's our way to thank back our community by giving a little something back at them , while we know that without them it would be way more complicated to rise in market cap. --
